What participants liked best about the Laboratory of Dialogue was:

- organization of the laboratory and presentations
- That till the end of the laboratory they didn't get bored at all. Coffees and sandwiches
- that the European Union concerns about NEET people
- that they met people who have the same concerns / problems with them
- that they learn a lot that they didn't know
- The project's coordination and the friendly climate
- That they have been able to share with others what troubles them
- The way of communication with all the participants
- That from now on they begun to hope that something good will happen
- That everyone one was kind even if they sometimes disagree with each other

Comments or suggestions made for future Laboratory of Dialogues:

- more practical suggestions about the way of contacting people who can offer jobs
- same organization and way of communication for the next laboratory
